SUNDAY EVENING SERVICE.

At the hour of 7:30 Rev. P. McIntyre conducted a lively prayer service. Then the above named Brothers were brought before the session for ordination. The Brothers knelt before the altar and nine ordained elders applied their hands upon their heads, and Rev. J. B. Gibson prayed the blessings of the eternal God upon them. Then the Moderator presented the Holy Bible and hymn book, and gave them the right hand of fellowship and commissioned them to work as ministers of God.

Then Rev. T. E. Davenport, Moderator, and Rev. T. Gurley were introduced to preach the closing sermon. Rev. Gurley lined hymn No. 88 which was sung. Rev. Davenport announced his text: "Man ought always to pray and not faint." The sermon was one long to be remembered. The whole audience was stirred with the power of the Holy Ghost. Rev. Gurley closed the sermon and opened the door of the church for the reception of members. Three new members joined.

Then by motion of Rev. K. D. Davis the session extended the members of St. Luke church a vote of thanks for their great hospitality that they showed to the ministers and delegates. Then Rev. R. H. Edwards moved the session stand adjourned to meet with Shady Grove Primitive Baptist church at Gainsville, Florida, Wednesday before the fourth Sunday in November, 1911. The session closed with a great hand shaking and a jubilee shout. Benediction by Moderator. The Grace of Christ be with you all. Amen.

EVANGELIST'S REPORT.

Brother Moderator and Brethren of the East and South Florida Association. I am thankful that the Lord, the great Head of the Church, has spared us to meet once more in an annual association to render our year's report of my service as Chief Evangelist. I was called to Mount Dora and did settle the the grievances that did exist between the two churches at that place and was called to New Salem church, Sanford, and did settle the trouble between pastor and church at that place.

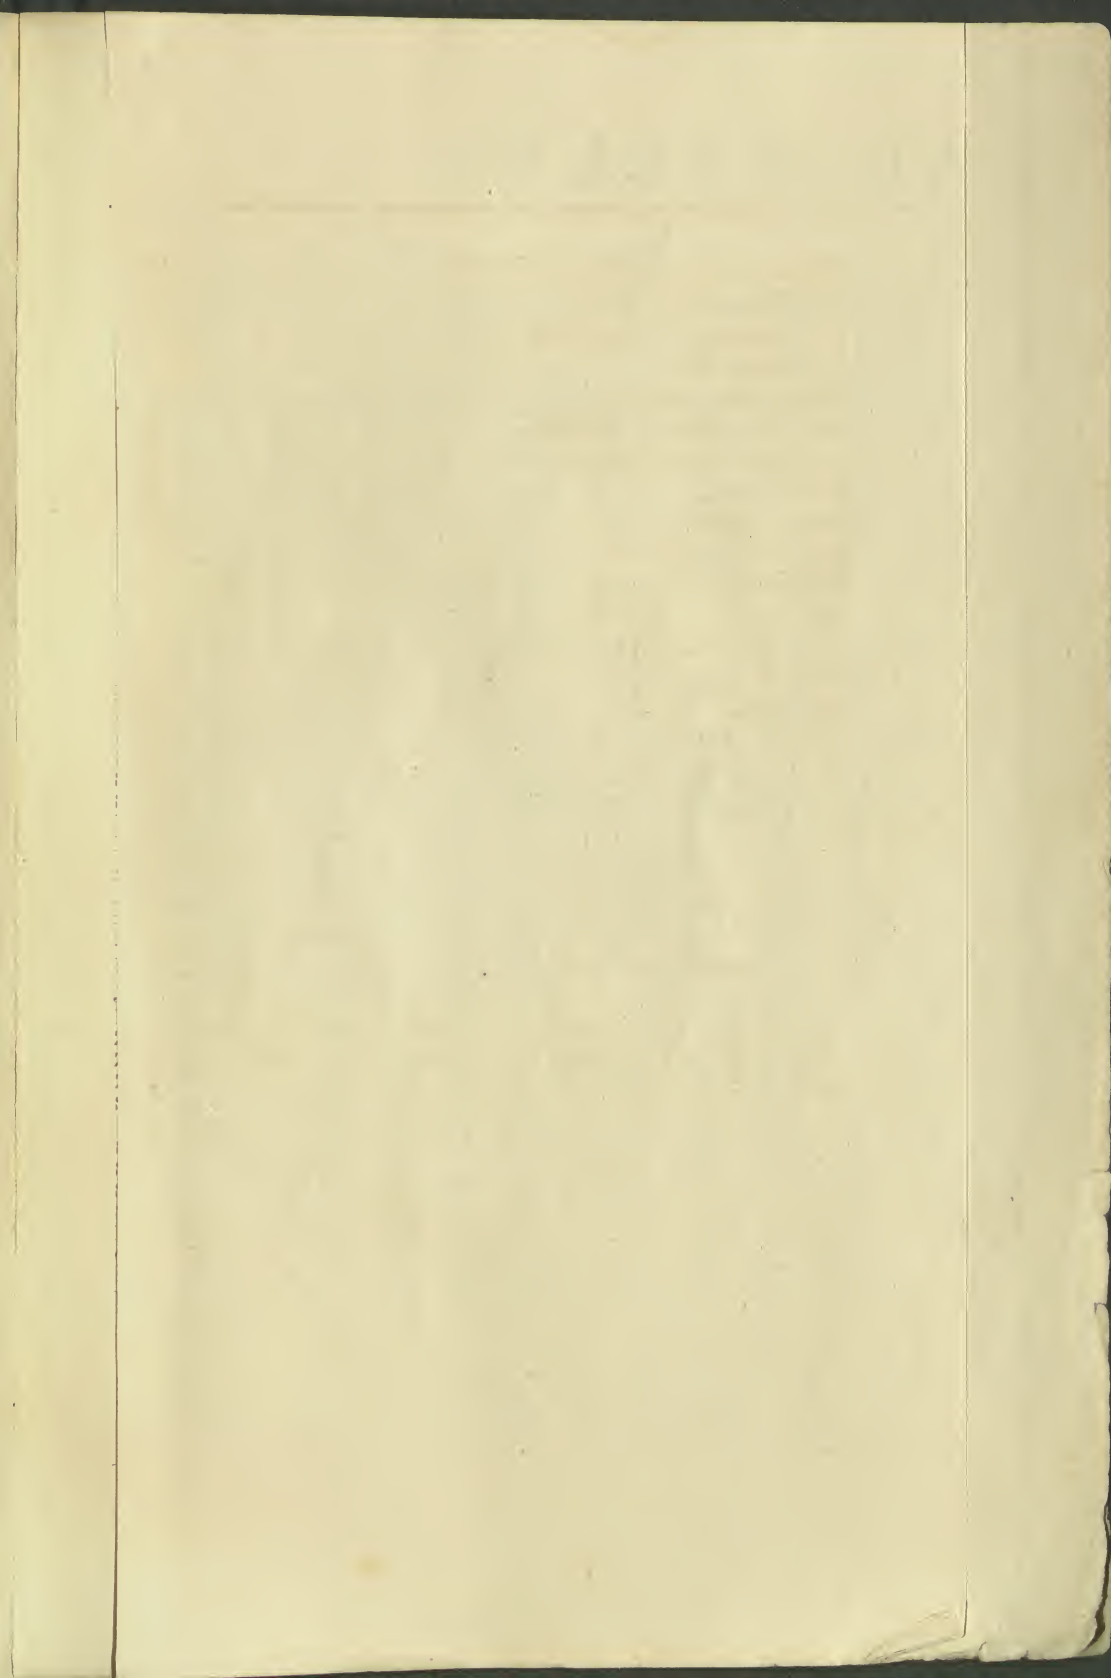

The Rev. A. L. Davis of Miami did not treat me right as an Evangelist when I was on his work so I filed a charge against him, and also I filed a charge against Rev. T. Gurley and Rev. R. Morris of Tampa, and the church of Key West for not admitting me to perform my official duty as Chief Evangelist with them.

I visited the church at West Lake and found that they were in need of a pastor, so I did recommend Rev. D. W. Washington to them as pastor. My financial report is as follows:
